

You are invited to attend

Design Speaks: Artichoke Night School

Session 14
Stop, collaborate and listen

Perhaps the most ubiquitous of creative collaborations is the design duo. But what's the secret behind a truly successful creative partnership? In this highly respected speaker program presented by Artichoke magazine, we go behind the scenes to find out how two award-winning duos make it work.

BEN EDWARDS and JULIET MOORE set up design practice Edwards Moore in 2009. The studio has received worldwide attention, with work ranging in scale from private houses, retail spaces, exhibitions and temporary pavilions to public buildings and large-scale city planning projects. Edwards Moore aims to encourage new insights that can lead to design innovation.

KIRSTEN STANISICH and JONATHAN RICHARDS are the Sydney-based directors of SJB Interiors. Kirsten was instrumental in establishing SJB Interiors in Sydney and has a passion for new and original design that pushes the industry forward. Jonathan's career began in theatre and exhibition design. He brings a style of refinement and craftsmanship to the interior design projects at SJB.

WHEN

Wednesday 7 May 6–8 pm

WHERE

Central Park Theatrette
Podium Level,
Central Park
152–158 St Georges Tce
Perth, Western Australia

COST $25

Secure your seats early
as tickets are limited

Book now

Left image: Arnsdorf
Concept Store by Edwards
Moore. Photography:
Tony Gorsevski.

Right image: Dee Why
Hotel by SJB Interiors.
Photography: Shannon
McGrath.

ARTICHOKE

Organiser

A DIA endorsed CPD
event for DIA members

