From the President

On Saturday we had our say on Australia's future through casting our votes in the federal election. We now have a new Coalition government with a majority of seats in the House of Representatives, although there will be no change to the Senate's make up until July next year.

From Soup to Nuts – A Taste of the Architectural Journey
1 - 5 October
Shoal Bay Resort & Spa, Port

The concept for this year's conference is to follow a sequence of stages through a traditional architectural process from beginning to end, or from soup to nuts. We will explore a diverse range of experiences, relationships, methodologies and built forms from the processes we often engage in through our architectural endeavours.

You can register online as an individual for the conference. It is recommended that if you are registering families or part day registrations you will need to complete the registration form and return with payment.
