From the National President

Next week I will be travelling to Singapore to attend the World Architecture Festival (WAF). WAF is a fantastic opportunity for the Institute to promote the work the organisation and our members are doing to an international audience. While there, I will be promoting the Institute's bid to host the UIA Congress in 2020 ...

Don't silence experts:
professional bodies add oomph
to any debate

Public debate about policy issues is something we need a lot more of. There should be a contest of ideas because there's no question that a diversity of views on the merits of policies leads us to a well-informed position in the end.
