From the National President

Many chapters are celebrating architecture this month and next with a number of festivals, jam-packed with events, parties, exhibitions and talks. Each of these promotes the value of architecture to the public with diverse programs that are engaging, thought-provoking and fun.

From the Chapter

Not another artist's impression! There continues to be a lot of discussion around what some perceive as the erosion of the role and status of the architect. The SA Chapter believes it is important that we pursue initiatives that both promote and strengthen the role of the architect.

Directions Report - Emergency Egress For All Occupants

The Australian Building Codes Board (ABCBC) has released a report on potential changes to the National Construction Code (NCC) to improve emergency egress from buildings for all occupants, including people with disability. Proposals in the report are intended to provide safe, equitable and dignified egress from a building for all occupants in an emergency. The ABCBC is seeking stakeholder feedback and comment on the proposals in the report via a response form by 1 November 2013.
