

From the President

Over the next month, Sydney Opera House plays host to a couple of significant events for the profession. On 25 October, the Architecture and Design Symposium brings together exceptional architects, designers and artists from Denmark and Australia for a meeting of minds like no other. Drawing on ambitions for the future of the Opera House and its rich history, this symposium examines projects and approaches across two cultures of design and architecture that address the contemporary contexts surrounding our renewed cultural investment in the city.
