

GRADUATE OF ARCHITECTURE
MELBOURNE, VICTORIA
GREAT CULTURE

NH Architecture is a leading Australian design studio founded on the principles of collaboration & open debate, where architects and designers are united by a commitment to creating outstanding contemporary architecture. Our collective expertise in architecture, urban design, master planning, interior design and graphic design enables us to deliver complex and high profile projects through from conception to delivery.

We are looking for an experienced Graduate of Architecture who is willing to 'get their hands dirty' by contributing to and supporting architectural projects including working on concept and design ideas, completing construction documentation and project coordination. You will have the desire and enthusiasm to work on and across all stages of projects and be nimble in jumping from one project to another.

To give you a taste for the role, you will be involved in:

- Assisting in the planning and design of buildings
- Attending (and occasionally leading) client meetings
- Conducting site visits
- Preparing architectural drawings and recommendations to clients
- Documentation of projects
- Liaising with internal and external stakeholders to ensure all aspects of a projects are coordinated

What you can bring to the table:

- 3 + years post graduate experience, preferably in large scale retail, commercial or mixed-use projects.
- Solid Revit and Sketch-up skills
- A flair for design and the ability to communicate conceptual ideas
- Excellent understanding of the BCA and Australian standards
- Working knowledge of building materials, their function and physical properties, and construction methods
- Strong communication and presentation skills
